DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1 and 7 are presented for examination. Claims 1 and 7 have been amended.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. Rejections withdrawn due to the amendment.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. Rejections withdrawn due to the amendment.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 1 and 7 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

While Kikuchi teaches two cleaning processes to be executed on two different times and dates and Kikuchi teaches a control panel with a display.

And, Barnes teaches receiving operational information indicative of desired operational modes and times for successive operations, wherein a user is visually conveyed information concerning these operations in a display, wherein the visual display indicates the amount of time until the start of the next operation during the current operation, wherein the display also indicates the operational mode for each of the operations prior to the starting of the next operation.

Neither Kikuchi nor Barnes, taken either alone or in obvious combination disclose a commercial fryer having all the claimed features of applicant's instant invention, specifically including: "a means for setting a maintenance time of each of a plurality of maintenance items wherein a user arbitrarily sets a weekly or monthly time cycle of maintenance for executing each of said maintenance items and a calendar date for a standard date of said time cycle", wherein informing means informs “said user when each calendar date occurs for executing each one of said maintenance items set by said maintenance time setting means” and “said informing means displays a predetermined sign on an operating panel of said commercial fryer”. It is for these reasons that applicant’s invention defines over the prior art of record.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled “Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance.”

Conclusion
